[REDACTED]:

We are responding to your correspondence requesting relief in order to establish January 1, 1999, as the effective date for your S corporation election. The information submitted explains that your election was rejected because it was filed late. You are ineligible for automatic relief under Revenue Procedure 98-55 because the election was filed past the 1999 tax return due date. Although we are unable to respond to your request as submitted, this letter provides useful information.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections and inadvertent invalid S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late or invalid S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a private letter ruling are set out in Revenue Procedure 2000-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, Rev. Proc. 2000-1 requires taxpayers to submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a private letter ruling is $5,000. However, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their last-filed tax return qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you are eligible to pay the reduced fee, a statement certifying your gross income must accompany your request; otherwise, you will be billed for the higher fee. Please review Appendix B for a sample format for requesting a private letter ruling.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a private letter ruling, please provide documents supporting your intention to be an S corporation from inception, and include the proper user fee. Please refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:

Attn: CC:P&A
P.O. Box 7604

Direct to: CC:PSI:B1

Please keep this letter with your tax records and feel free to provide a copy of it to your authorized representative. We hope that the above information proves helpful.

Sincerely yours,
